Al Rouse is a leading executive with over 30 years of expanding leadership and management expertise. In addition to extensive leadership and Federal Financial Management experience gained while in uniform, he has served in a wide range of roles in private business since military retirement.

Experienced in a broad range of Government and commercial client sets and functional domains, Al possesses a wealth of Business Development and corporate development skills targeted towards sustained growth and delivery excellence.

With MBD<sup>i</sup>, he uses his considerable expertise in conducting revenue generation assessments and in consulting and coaching clients in how to secure government business.

Following a 21-year career as a Navy Surface Warfare Officer including assignments with the Bureau of Naval Personnel and the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations, Al started his business career as Vice President for Navy Programs with Strategic Business Solutions, Inc.

He subsequently joined Resource Consultants, Inc. (RCI), where he rose through the management ranks and became Senior Vice President of Professional Services. In this capacity, he was responsible for over $100M in government and commercial business after RCI's acquisition by Serco, a large international government services provider based in the UK.

In his last position, Al served as Vice President for Defense Programs with Advanced Technology Systems Corporation (ATSC).

A native of Jacksonville, NC, Al holds a BA in Political Science from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and an MS in Financial Management from the Naval Postgraduate School.
